9. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions given below:

In the year 1820, there was born at Florence, in Italy, an English baby girl. Her father was Mr. Nightingale, a wealthy gentleman who had two country homes in England, and he and his wife named their little one Florence, after the lovely city where she was born. They returned to England when she was still quite small and Florence grew up in the beautiful wooded country of New Forest in New Hampshire.

Florence must have been a rather serious girl, for when her mother and sisters were giving and attending parties and entertaining friends, she preferred to slip out in the village to see if any of the humble folk there were ailing or sick. Miss Florence was sure to pay visits doing all she could do to ease their pain.

- A. Fill in the following chart about Florence Nightingale. [1 X 6 = 6]
